OLGA RODYGINA

Olga is a professional figure skater, and fully qualified Level 2 skating coach. She started skating at the age of 5 in her native Russia, where she competed in numerous skating competitions, becoming Siberian champion on several occasions.

At the age of 19 Olga became a principle solo performer in a prominent Ice Show in Germany, which led to offers from The Royal Caribbean Cruise Line to perform in their ice shows. She went on to tour the globe for a decade with Willy Bietak Productions. She has also performed internationally with Imperial Ice Stars, in shows which included the well known Winter Wonderland in London, and has performed at The Royal Albert Hall.

Olga is an experienced coach who is fluent in English and Russian. She has worked extensively with students of all ages and abilities, from beginners to competitive skaters, as well as being a talented choreographer.

Olga is a friendly, caring, and enthusiastic coach whose main goal is to ensure that each and every one of her students has a safe, positive, and, most importantly, enjoyable skating experience!
